Summit Conference

by Robert David MacDonald
Director Kit Thomas

Summit Conference brings Hitler's and Mussolini's mistresses together for tea in an exploration of unchecked power, anti-Semitism, and gender roles. Eva Braun and Clara Petacchi talk first of music and fashion, but soon slide into a dangerous game in which each assumes her absent lover's authority, prejudice, and arrogance. And a German soldier, at first their guard, becomes their plaything after he is revealed to be Jewish.

Cast includes Eirc Altheide, Rita Petropinto, Sarah Megan Thomas
